DAVID SAGER--LOYALIST

His name, not that of his father, is on the U.S. List 146B

DAVID SAGER was born in Rhinebeck, Dutchess County, New York, 5 December 1765. His parents were David Seger (Sager) and Elizabeth Waldenmeyer, who presented their child for baptism on 8 December 1765, at the St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Wertenburg, in Rhinebeck, New York. The sponsors were John Waldenmeyer and his wife, Mary.

As a young lad, David spent much time with his uncle, and subscribed to the same political beliefs as his uncle, John Waldenmeyer, resulting in his refusal to take the "loyalty oath" to the Colonists. David was branded as a "Tory", and was forced to flee into Canada. He soon made his way to Prince Edward County; where, in 1789, he married Catherine Weise (Weese), the only daughter of Captain John Weise (Weese) who was the first white man to settle in Ameliasburg township. David and Catherine were the first white couple to be married in Carrying Place, Ontario. The minister, who performed the ceremony, received "one york shilling" as payment for his services.

In 1792, David Sager received a grant of 200 acres of land from the Land Board of the Mecklenburgh District appointed by the Governor of Quebec in 1789. His Certificate of Land Grant, dated 2 May 1792 at Kingston, reads: "DAVID SAGER--LOYALIST, granted 200 acres of land in the Township of Ameliasburg in the District of Mecklenburgh" (now Prince Edward County, Ontario). He was assigned to Lot 87 in III Concession, Township of Ameliasburg, where he and his wife continued to reside until death in 1849. However, their burial place is presently unknown.

David and Catherine Sager had nine children, six boys and three girls, whose names were: Mary Elizabeth, John, Jacob, Ann, David, Michael, Catherine, Henry, and Francis.

bapt. 22 Mar 1795

Mary Elizabeth Sager--born 1795 in Prince Edward County. She married John Burley and had children, Ephraim and Hiram. Said to have married 2nd to Louis Bush. Her other descendants are not known today.

John Sager--Born 1807 in Prince Edward County. Married Harriet Gaffield, and lived on Lot 92, Concession I, Ameliasburg Township. He died in 1868, and is buried in Albury Church Cemetery, near Carrying Place. They had two sons, George and Albert, and one daughter, Phoebe, and their descendants still live in Ontario.

Jacob Sager--born in Ameliasburg Township of Prince Edward County, on 1 May 1799. Lived on Lot 88, Concession II, Ameliasburg Township. Jacob married Anna Rogers, a granddaughter of Wm. Rogers, also a Loyalist. They had eight children: *John William, Joseph, David H., Albert L., Jane, Sarah Ann, Mary E., and Nancy. Descendants of their first son, *John William, live in the United States today (including myself in Texas). Descendants of the other children still live in Ameliasburg Township and other parts of Canada. Jacob Sager died 14 October 1869, and was buried in the Albury Church Cemetery.

Ann Sager--traditionally married Philly Coullier (or Collier). Her descendants, if any, are presently unknown.

David Sager--born ca 1808. Married Mary Hogel, and settled in Sidney Township, Hastings County. They had five girls and one boy: Margaret, Eleanor, Catherine, Caroline, Elizabeth, and David. Other descendants are unknown.

David's wife, Catherine Weese, is daughter of a Loyalist

1. The first of these is the fact that the United States has a long and distinguished record of leadership in the world. This is reflected in the fact that the United States has been a member of every major international organization since its inception, and has played a leading role in the development of the world's political and economic systems. The United States has also been a leading force in the promotion of human rights and the rule of law, and has been a major contributor to the world's economic and social development.

Dear Mr Secretary:

The end of past week Mrs Adamson received a letter and a run down on David Sager-Loyalist by his descendant James W. Sager.

I am not aware who made up the article but I want you to know much of it is in error, and I have so advised Mr Jim Sager, and in turn have asked him to please advise you and Gazette that it did not want our name connected with this article in which so many errors occur, and this is to advise you from us to that effect. If he and others would send these articles to the persons whom they quote as having done research for them, much trouble and strained relations would be prevented. (I have already lost ^{us} with the ^{US} Mission)

You may print what you wish so long as our name is not connected, otherwise we shall take other means to have same complied with. I am most concerned this article does not appear in the Gazette ^{under} our name. I would advise you to contact the Editor at once that our name will not be used as one of his researchers.

No doubt this has already gone to Dr Burleigh and what do you suppose he thinks of us as assistant genealogists to him

Sincerely

W. Adamson

The following is a list of the names of the persons who were present at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Red Cross, held on June 1, 1944, at the Hotel New York, New York.

Michael Sager--born January 1806 in Prince Edward County. He married Nancy Rogers (sister to Anna, above), and settled on Lot 19, Concession VIII, Sidney Township, Hastings County. Michael established a Potash Factory, Grist Mill, Saw Mill, and an Inn, all of which are now gone. He also donated land for a school house and a cemetery plot in which he was buried in April of 1876. Michael and Nancy had ten children: Samatha, Henry, Robert William, David G., Jane, Sarah, Melissa, Mary Margaret, Ann, and Mehila. Their descendants live in all the western provinces of Canada and in the United States. A great grandson of Michael now lives on the same farm originally owned by Michael, and it is now known as "Sager's Corner", near Stirling, Ontario.

Catherine Sager--traditionally married Franklin Worden (or Werden) and settled in the Hamilton, Ontario, area. They had several sons and daughters, George, Asa, William T., Mary, and Debora. Further descendants are unknown.

Henry Sager--born in April of 1812. Married Nancy (Hogel) Ackerman of Carrying Place, and settled in Trenton where he resided until his death in 1864. His widow and children moved to Rochester, New York where descendants still live today.

Francis Sager--born August 1817 in Prince Edward County. Believed to have never married. He died in Montreal, Quebec, in September 1848, and was buried in the Albury Church Cemetery.

DAVID GILBERT SAGER

David Gilbert Sager was born in Rhinebeck, Dutchess County, New York, date unknown, came to Canada in 1787, with his Uncle John Walter Myers a U.E. Loyalist who was a half pay officer and settled in Adolphustown, drawing 300 acres of land in the Township of Sidney when Sidney was first surveyed. (I have seen where it appeared that David Gilbert was the half pay officer). Historic Hastings County - quote - He arrived in the Bay of Quinte about 1784-85, he obtained two lots at Kingston and then squatted on the front of Sidney Twp. before that township was surveyed.

David Sager and Cornelius carried on a blacksmithing trade and made wooden ploughs with iron points previous to 1830 would appear as I have read about.

David Sager married Catherine Weese or Weese 1789 but it is questionable if they were the first white couple married in Ameliasburg by a Elder. The only person who could marry a couple were a Anglican Minister or a Justice of the Peace (Magistrate) and a few Commanding Officers and their Adjutants, of Regular Regiments. In all this area from Montreal west only Rev. Stewart of Kingston and a Anglican Missionary Rev. Langhorn of Bath were the only two ministers until 1800; when Rev McDougall and a Presbyterian and a Lutheran Rev. Weagant were given authority.

David Gilbert's father in law John Weese or Weese was the first white in Ameliasburg Twp., locating there in 1783 ?? The records show otherwise. On old FREDERICKSBURG Map which was settled with the other five Twp's in 1784 we find John Weese Lot 6. w. 1/2 Con. 2. and John Weese Jr. Lot # 6. E 1/2 Con 2. In another document we find John Weese, Weese, West receiving his Dorchester bounty of 200 acres in lot #89 in the 2nd Concession of Ameliasburg and John Weese Jr Lot 89 in the first Con of Ameliasburg. It appears no clear titles were gained by the Weese until about 1808. after the John Weese Sr had died.

The Weese family were not here in 1783 as there was no one in this area that early only the French 100 years previous. I have a record where the authorities made a muster of the settlers on the Bay in late October of 1784. 4 men & 2 women & 3 children were slated for Ameliasburg, of these I saw Lewis Mosher was on his land, Nathan Brown gone to Cataragui and 2 never appeared, all settled elsewhere, and the rest of the County was a forest of trees and unpopulated as of Oct. 1784. (Note these names are on sheets in large print and are copies of the official lists preserved in the Archives at Ottawa.

David and Catharine's family are as you have given them in the Weese family

Mr Sager was a Capt., Major & Colonel in the U.E. Militia I have not gone into his ranks but I know it was not the U.E. Militia. as there was no such This could mean the P.E. Militia meaning, Prince Edward Militia.

"The SETTLEMENT of UPPER CANADA by Dr. Canniff 1865 - quote - The first Weese with three sons, John, Henry & Francis, natives of Dutchess County, N.Y. They came here in 1787. The second settler was Thomas Dempsey, who came in 1789., both U.E. Loyalists. Among other early settlers were, Bonters, Sagers, Bleckers and Coverts.

Most of these errors appear in what is known as Historical Atlas of Prince Edward County of 1873, which has many errors. C.L.R. Wanaamaker which he has sent to me. I have tried to correct it.

This my Reply to the first page in his Sager book - many errors - Dec 1964

At last, in 1965, I was able to go to Prince Edward County in Ontario, a distance of some 1800 miles from my home in Texas. I discovered many Sagers and related families still residing in Prince Edward and Hastings Counties! It was through them that I was able to obtain the "long awaited" answers to many of my questions concerning the Sager ancestry and their reasons for being in Ontario, Canada. It has also been through the help of Mr. Clarence S. Chard of Stirling, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. R. Wanamaker of Prince Edward County; and Mr. Kenneth Benson of Toronto that I was able to put together the story of my great, great, great grandfather, DAVID SAGER--LOYALIST.

LATE ATTORNEY IS GIVEN PRAISE

RESOLUTION ADOPTED IN LEWIS SUPREME COURT

TRIBUTE TO FREDERICK SCHRAUB

Lewis County Bar Association
Adopts Resolution in Court
Mourning Death of State's First Agricultural Commissioner.

Lowville, Dec. 6.—Sessions of the supreme court here with Justice Abram Zoller of Herkimer presiding were interrupted briefly Monday afternoon while the Lewis County Bar association paid tribute to the late Frederick C. Schraub, Lowville, who died Oct. 6.

A resolution on his death was presented to the court by E. S. K. Merrell, former justice of the supreme court. The resolution was seconded by Frank Bowman, president of the Lewis County Bar Association; Albert V. Moore of Boonville, a member of the Oneida county bar, and John M. Reynolds, of Watertown, vice president of the Jefferson County Bar association.

The resolution said that "in the passing of our deceased friend and associate, the Lewis county bar has lost an able, honest and outstanding member, whose memory will be a guide to those who aptitude for the law and from the first of his practice he became a earnest and successful advocat. He was a deep student of the law and was always most loyal to the interests of his clients. Nature did much for him, and he was able to present to courts and juries the interests of his clients with great ability and learning, and was markedly successful in his practice.

"Until failing health compelled him to lay aside his labors in the profession, his practice was large and remunerative one. At all times he held the respect and gratitude of those whose interests he protected. His charges for services performed for his clients were always low. He did not commercialize the practice of the law, but loved his profession and practiced law for the pleasure of it, and the element of financial gain was of minor importance to him. His career as a practicing lawyer is worthy the emulation of the lawyers of today.

"He received signal honors from the state, and was appointed dairy commissioner, and later became the first commissioner of agriculture of the state. These public trusts he discharged with honor to himself and to the satisfaction of the state."

Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ont.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:-

Your name has been sent to me by Mrs. Dorling as being the Genealogist for the U.E.L. Association in the Bay of Quinte area, and I am passing on to you the enquiries I had directed to her. I am hoping you will be able to give me some assistance in some family research. I have been engaged for 5 years in working on the genealogy of my family. The history of my father's family is about completed-(if such can ever be true!)- and have recently begun on my mother's lines. I have been told there may be some U.E.L. connections, and this is why I am writing you.

The families in which I am particularly interested at the moment are SAGER and SPAFFORD.

My great-grandfather was James Sager. Of him I know nothing except that he married Margaret Spafford, daughter of John Henry Spafford. The Spaffords originally came from Yorkshire, were said to be United Empire Loyalists, settling around Wingham and Blythe. James and Margaret are presumed to have married around the early 1860's, and there were three children of this union -- John Benjamin (my grandfather) born London, 1865, and two girls, Annie and Bessie. Margaret died and James remarried--second wife not known yet.

Of earlier Sagers - relationship not yet established) - I have a transcript of a record of a David Gilbert Sager, born Dutchess County, New York, came to Canada 1787, with his uncle Walter Myers, a United Empire Loyalist, and settled in Adolphustown in the Township of Sidney when Sidney was first surveyed..... In 1789 he married Catherine Weese, only daughter of John Weese who was the first white man in Ameliasburgh, locating there in 1783..... David Gilbert Sager was a capt., Major and Col. in the U.E. Militia, court and general training being held many years at his place of residence...

The foregoing paragraph is a copy of parts of the record found in the family bible at the home of John Allen Sager, Sager's Corner, near Stirling. I can send you a complete copy of the transcript if required.

My personal knowledge of the U.E.L. Association is very, very limited, but I am hoping to learn more of it through you. I do not know, but am presuming that your interest in genealogy is confined mainly to establishing U.E.L. Relationships, but I will be very grateful for any suggestions you may have about other avenues I might pursue, as well. As a "Centennial Project", I have considered putting my family history into some sort of published form, and will have to work with considerable speed if I am to include in it anything on this branch.

Please advise me of any charges for a search of your records, and I enclose a stamped addressed envelope for your reply, which I hope to have at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,

Merle Smith

Dear Dr. Burleigh, (Gen. M. E. L.).

Bath
Ont.

Your article on the "White House" - in Nov. Royalist Gazette is a good thing and very interesting. Only wish I could have heard you give it.
How true - "some very interested, some less interested, and some care not at all."

We are very thankful to you & Mr. W. P. R. Wannamaker for clearing up the connection of the Sager-Rogers-family connections.

Mr. J. V. Sager of Pasadena (Houston) Texas last winter wrote to his cousin Miss Helen Chard, of Winnipeg - (who is also a very distant cousin of mine) she sent the letter on to me to answer - saying she had been here when 5-6 yrs. old but could not remember much about the Sager family near here & have known them well since 1896. This family goes back locally well over a century here. I have the crown deed of their farm.

Mr. Sager of Texas said his gr. grandfather went to Texas from Pr. Edward County, Ont. - but he could only get a family record back to Jacob Sager of Pr. Edward - who married Ann Rogers.

Jacob Sager's brother - Michael Sager married Nancy Rogers. Your record & Mr. Wannamaker's shows - William Rogers of Ornestown was a United Empire Loyalist - had sons John, Joseph, Ephraim and Jedediah - & daughter Kate. John & Joseph settled in Murray Township - County Northumberland (1st County west of Hastings County).
(We live in Sidney Township - Hastings County)

William Rogers - U.E. Loyalist - Ernestown.
His family were Joseph Rogers - married 1804 - Nancy Weese - ^{Northumberland County} settled Murray Tp.
John Rogers - married Jan. 17th 1797 - Jerany Weese ^{settled Murray Tp.}
Ephraim Rogers - settled in Rawdon Township - Hastings County.
Jedediah Rogers - settled in Hungerford Tp. - Hastings County.
Kate Rogers - married July 16th 1793 - to David Weese.

Joseph Rogers wife (Nancy Weese), was daughter of John Weese (Ernestown)

Joseph Rogers family were -

Nancy Rogers married Michael Sager (Stirling, Ont) - both are buried in River Valley Pioneer Cemetery by #3387.
2 miles south of Stirling (Sager farm).

Robert Rogers - 1816-1898 - married Mary Ann Smith (1820-1894).

Ann Rogers - 1805-1869 - married Jacob Sager - 1869 aged 70 yrs.
both buried Albury Cemetery - Pr Edward County.

The above gives direct descendants of Jacob Sager & his wife Ann Rogers - (Mr. J. H. Sager, of Texas - is a direct descendant of William Rogers - U.E. Loyalist of Ernestown.)
Also same applies to Jack Sager & family #4 Stirling - as being Jr. (7th Gr.) grandsons of Henry Sager, wife Nancy Rogers - also Frank Sager of #4 Stirling - cousin of Jack Sager.
Messrs Sager & C. S. Chard, send you their thanks for all your work in this matter.

Have contacted several Rogers families & they were all interested (Murray Township) (Joseph Rogers descendants) who replied they were anxious, but unable to trace ancestors (near ancestors) had passed away. - (now they may trace ancestors).

3.
Have sent copy of yours & M. Wannamaker's records about Rogers families record - to several to help them trace their ancestry - through Joseph & John (Nancy Ann) Rogers.

I understand M. Wannamaker is doing a lot of hunting up names in Cemeteries of M.E. Royalist families.
In River Valley Pioneer Cemetery (back to 1861 - oldest stone) (but this land owned by Rev. John Stewart 1806 - will be to his nephew Rev. O. Hill Stewart) - local newspaper clipping of years ago is marked (Registry).

This cemetery is being thoroughly (Renovated) 1964-1965 and may be last resting place of several M.E.R. descendants - as Nancy Rogers Sager & a good deal of local interest being shown. According to a man (years ago) who lived over 90 yrs - told of many names of people who were buried here - when he was young - (many names - none of us had even, ever heard of). He said many graves only had wooden markers.

Mr. J. G. Sager wife of Texas - ~~was~~ ^{were} here in August - seemed very fine people & He is a Veteran of War 2 & Korean War - a civil engineer in Pasadena (Pasadena) Texas. Said he had heard his grandfather tell of long ago in Pt. Edward (Cunty) & always anxious to see his ancestors former home in Pt. Edward - this was his first visit to Canada & after his return home he wrote he had sent a years subscription to Toronto Branch - M.E.L. for the Royalist Gazette. Recently one of Jack Sagers sons ~~near~~ ^{near} had been to Texas on his honeymoon trip to visit Mr. & Mrs. J. G. Sager Texas & reported a real welcome there (good International relations).
Best wishes for your future. We had an extra good turn out on Nov. 11th at Sterling - although very cold. Many thanks for all your good work.

Yours sincerely
Clarence Richard

Dr. H. C. Burleigh. (Gen. U. E. L. Ass'n.)

Bath, Ont.

Dear Dr. Burleigh---

In your letter of March 3rd/65, -- quote from Langhorn Parish Register (Ameliasburgh Reg Register)---" Mary, daughter of David and Catherine Sager of Ameliasburgh, baptized March 22/1795 .

According to Family Record of Jack Sager's---Col. David Gilbert Sager , married Catherine Weese. daughter of John Weese. of Ameliasburgh, Township, Pr. Edward Coun ty. in 1787 1789.

Would it have been possible for this man to come to Canada with his uncle Capt. John W.
Myers (founder of Belleville)--- possibly having been a Revolutionary Soldier. In Dr. Mack's book, page 33-- it shows Joseph Chard came to the Stirling Area in 1787., and drew an army pension from the United States , until his death.

Jack Sager's Family record(very old looking) shows the following children of Col David G. Sager and his wife Catherine(Weese) as follows-- no mention of a child Mary----- Elizabeth, married John Burley-- Anne married Philly Culler---Jacob married Ann Rogers-- Michael married Nancy Rogers(M. & Nancy are buried in River Valley Pioneer Cemetery by #33 Hy, two miles south of Stirling, Ont)monument there)--- David married Mary Hoyle---John married Harriet Gariefield--- Henry married Nancy Hoyle---- Elizabeth's 2nd husband was Franklin Werden.
Does this look as if the David Sager (Langhorn's Parish Register, Ameliasburgh Tp.) and the the Col David Gilbert Sager are the same man. - apparently married to Catharine weese , the d daughter of John Weese of Ameliasburgh, Tp. ?

Further from Jack Sager's Family record-----

David Gilbert Sager's father- in- law-- John Weese was the first white man in Ameliasburgh Township-- located Four years before this Township was surveyed.

Mr. Sager Captain, - Major-- Colonel in the Prince Edward Militia. Court and General training at Residence for many years. The Old Homestead is now in possession of his Grandson ~~Albert~~ Albert Sager.

Mary, Daughter of David and Katherine Sager was baptis~~sed~~ March 2 /1795.

(of Ameliasburgh) Pr. Edward County Ont.

Except for the difference in the spelling-- David and Katherine Sager(Otherine) Weiss -- or or Weese, Or Weisse as in Dr. Mack's book) the dates correspond about David Gilbert Sager and looks as if the Army Officer on half Pay, may have referred to Capt. John Walter Myers as Uncle of David Gilbert Sager.

The following is copied from 2 sheets of very old , age yellowed paper found in Family Bible at Jack Sager's -- (R. R. 4, Stirling, Ont. Canada.)

Col. David Gilbert Sager- born Rheinbeck, - Dutch County, New York State, came to Canada with his Uncle Capt. John Walter Myers, , a U. E. Loyalist in 1787. He was a Half Pay officer and settled in Adolphustown -drawing Three thousand acres^S land in Sidney Township when it was first surveyed. In 1789 he married Catherine Weise, only daughter of of John Weise. They were the first white couple married in the Township of Ameliasburgh- married by -- Elder of Carrying Place. -- there till death in 1849.

Their family were Elizabeth, John, Anne, Jacob, David, Michael, Henry, Catherine, and Francis.

David Sager and Cornelious Benson, carried on a Blacksmithing for a Trade. , when Prince Edward was first openedup--- they made nearly all the plows, hoes, shovels, which were used at that time. Plows had Wooden Mouldboards, and Wrought Iron Points. , about 1830 before there were any Cast Iron Plows made here. ., and were a luxury that few could enjoy. First plow -- called Casey-Peckham, and were manufactured at Casey's Point at Entrance from the OUTLET. into Hay Bay. Threshing machines were not introduced till 1850-- /40..

Elizabeth married John Burley, Anne married Philly Culler, Jacob married Ann Rogers., David married Mary Hoyle, Henry married Nancy Hoyle John married Harriet Garfield. (Elizabeth married

David Sager

(Sager File)

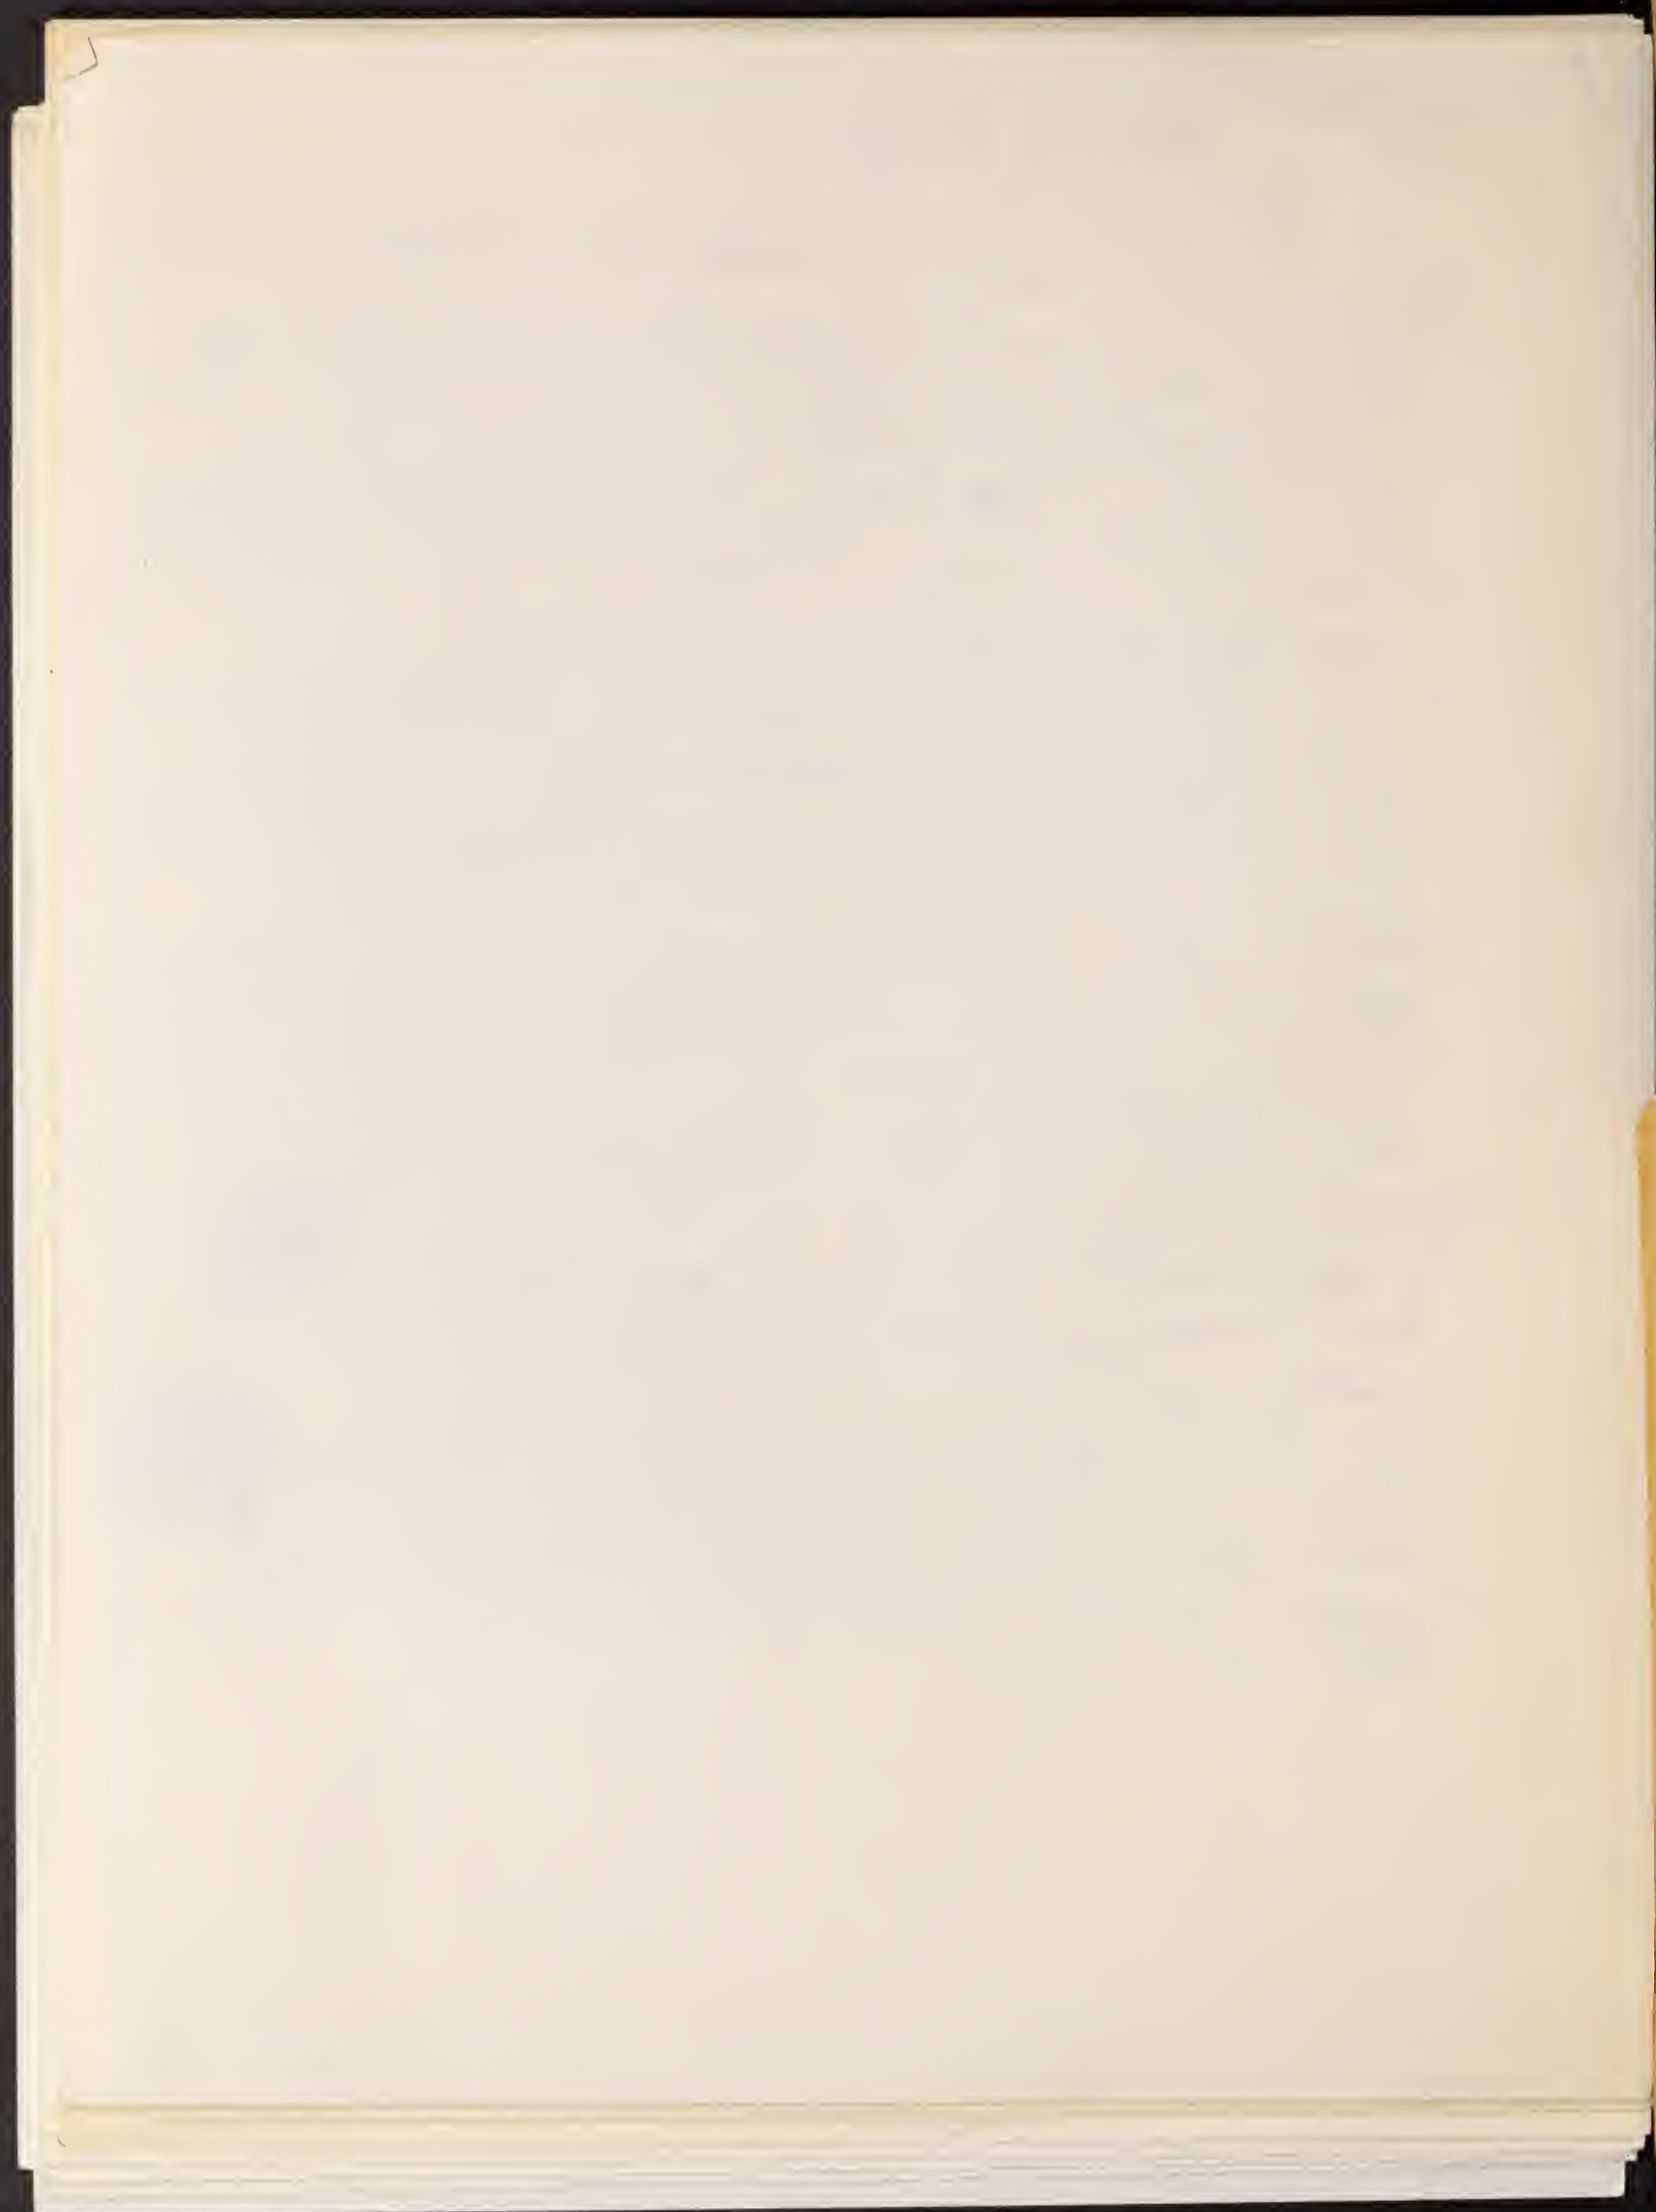

David Sager was born in Rhinebeck, Dutchess County, N.Y., 5 Sept 1765. His parents were David Sager (Sager) and Elizabeth Waldenmeyer, who presented their child for baptism on 8 December 1765, at the St Paul's Lutheran Church of Walerburg, in Rhinebeck, New York. The sponsors were John Waldenmeyer and his wife Mary.

As a young lad, David spent much time with his uncle, and subscribed to the same political beliefs as his uncle, John Waldenmeyer, resulting in his refusal to take the "loyalty oath" to the Colonists. David was branded as a "Tory," and was forced to flee into Canada. He soon made his way to Prince Edward County, where, in 1787, he married Catherine Weiss (Weiss), the only daughter of Captain John Weiss (Weiss), who was the first white man to settle in Ameliasburg Township.

Elizabeth Waldenmeyer is believed to be sister of Rob. Blecker's wife. She later married 2nd Colin McKenzie of Crown Point. She had two children by Blecker and four by McKenzie. Her christening name has not been discovered, unless it was Sarah. It is possible that the last child of Colin, which was born in 1781, named William, was son of Sarah Power who became Colin's third wife.
